Xerox to Open Call Center, Adding 700 Jobs in Greeley

GREELEY, Co. May 29, 2012 – Xerox will establish a customer care call center in Greeley that will create 700 permanent and project-based new jobs by the end of this year.

Xerox will lease space at 244 Dundee Ave, Greeley. The 88,000 square foot space will become a state-of-the-art call center and will be staffed to provide customer care support on behalf of a Xerox client.

"Thousands of companies rely on Xerox's business process and information technology services every day. Xerox's decision to expand and create jobs in Colorado is great news and shows the strength of our world-class workforce," said Gov. John Hickenlooper.

Xerox employs 1,900 in Colorado with a major customer care center in Colorado Springs and operations in Denver and other locations in the state.
